FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- (1) There is probable cause to believe the Defendant committed the offense in this case. The maximum penalty for this offense is in excess of ten years. Therefore, there is a rebuttable presumption against the Defendant's release based upon both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).
- (2) The Defendant is viewed as a risk of nonappearance due to the following factors: he is a native and citizen of Mexico who has previously been removed from the U.S.; his ties to the district are unknown; he has a history of failing to appear at court hearings and an outstanding misdemeanor warrant.
- Furthermore, the Defendant is viewed as a danger to the community due to the (3) nature of the instant offense.
- (4) The Defendant did not contest detention.
- (5) Based upon the foregoing information, it appears that there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure future Court appearances and/or the safety of other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1)The Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) The Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for
